

Lahaina Items

Mrs. Gossin of Baldwin House went to Honolulu on Monday night's steamer.

The Rev. Albert Palmer, of Honolulu addressed the Lahainaluna students on Sunday evening.

About two-thirds of the Lahainaluna students have had the "flu", but none were seriously ill and all are well again.

Mr. S. Mookini, a teacher at the Lahainaluna School has been quite ill with the pleurisy following the influenza, but he is convalescing.

Mr. Townsend, Mrs. Decoto, Mrs. Townsend, Miss Gill and Mrs. Gannon, left on Wednesday afternoon's Mauna Kea for the volcano. They expect to return on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fleming of the Honolulu Ranch spent a few days of last week in Honolulu, coming home on Saturday's Mauna Kea.

Mrs. James Fleming of Hamakua-poko was in Honolulu last week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. David Fleming.

Miss Clara Mosser, of Paia, was in Lahaina on Monday, visiting friends at Baldwin House.

Mr. A. C. Collins, manager of the Pioneer Plantation has been quite seriously ill.

Dr. James Judd, of Honolulu came over to Lahaina on Wednesday's Mauna Kea.

Mr. E. Horrick Brown, of Honolulu, was in Lahaina this week on business.

Mr. Campbell, a graduate of the Normal school, San Jose, California, who has been engaged as a teacher at the Lahainaluna School, is expected this week.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION IS MAKING GOOD IN UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 9—(Associated Press)—Compensation insurance cost the industries of Utah in the first year of its compulsory establishment in this state, $1,977,612, the first annual report of the state industrial commission shows, this represents the premiums paid, according to statistics furnished to the commission from various sources.

Approximately 60 per cent of the above sum represents premiums that would have been paid by self-insurers had they insured with stock companies or with the state.

Button, Button, Who Has The Cleveland?

are agents for the Cleveland.

Here on Maui, where the Royal Hawaiian is represented by F. H. Locey, this concern seems to have somewhat the best of the argument at present. At least Locey has a tractor on hand to show and he has been very busy the past day or two driving the little machine up and down Main street with a noisy sign designed to show who was the Cleveland boss in Hawaii.

The result is that nobody (outside of automobile circles, at least) pretends to really understand anything at all about the case, but are enjoying the scrap just the same and are waiting for the next move.

WOMAN DEPUTY SHERIFF MAKES GOOD

PLACERVILLE, Cal., Jan. 22—(Associated Press)—Miss Lulu Cook, deputy sheriff of El Dorado county, is serving her ninth consecutive year. She is a daughter of Gilbert Cook, a former sheriff of the county, and was appointed a deputy under Sheriff Chas. E. Hand, who succeeded her father at the latter's death. Miss Cook is only 30 years of age.

During her term she has made several arrests, and has taken one prisoner, Mary Weston, who was sentenced to eight years imprisonment for shooting Harry Stevens, to San Quentin.

She has had charge of all the female prisoners who have been confined in the El Dorado County jail for the past eight years. She is said to be remarkably successful in handling insane persons.

COLORADO, SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 18—(Associated Press.)—Fred Staley used to pay the city of Colorado Springs $1,440 for the privilege of collecting garbage. He used it to feed the hogs on his ranch. Now he asks the city to pay him $200 a month for the cost of collection.

Since housewives began conserving food at the request of the food administration the waste found in garbage cans has contained less and less. The council decided to permit him to collect the garbage without taxing him for the privilege.

NENAMA, Alaska, Dec. 7—(By Mail)—(Associated Press)—Recent arrivals from the Koyukuk district report that a promising gold strike has been made in the Dookakak county, about 150 miles below Haghes. Quite a number of prospectors have "hit the trail" for the diggings and the camp already has a store of its own.

Once upon a time when all the world was green, a big mail-order house was doing extensive advertising in a small country town. An old Jew merchant who had run a store in this same town for 27 years was somewhat peeved on seeing that his customers were falling for the mail-order bunk. He realized that he would have to get busy along modern advertising lines and the next morning displayed the following sign from the front of his place of business:

"Why allow foreigners from out of town to rob you, when your friends will do it here at home."
